

Your daily numbers — the 2-minute routine

Everything lives in one place: My Numbers in the left sidebar. At the end of each day, confirm your calls and submit your day. What you submit is what shows on the team board — a day you don't submit doesn't count for you.

1 Confirm your calls

The top of the page lists your recorded calls from the last few days, with the numbers our AI read from each recording — outcome, cash collected, contract value.

+ Add a call we missed

Your recent calls, with each call's outcome and cash. AI-read calls show a Confirm link.

- A call marked AI-read hasn't had human eyes on it yet. If the numbers are right, tap Confirm (or Confirm all to do the whole list at once).
- If anything is wrong, tap Check these figures / Edit figures, fix the outcome or amounts, and Save. An edit counts as a confirmation.
- Green ✓ Confirmed means that call is done — nothing more to do.

2 Took a call the bot missed? Add it

If the bot wasn't let into a meeting (or never joined), that call isn't in the list — tap + Add a call we missed and enter it in about 15 seconds. It counts everywhere, same as a recorded call.

3 Submit your day

Below the calls is your day form. It's pre-filled from what we recorded — check it, fix anything that's off, fill in the Follow-ups & pitches row, and hit Submit day.

FOLLOW-UPS BOOKED 2 follow-up calls you scheduled	FOLLOW-UPS SHOWN 0 follow-ups where they showed	PITCHED @ $6,800 — times you pitched this package	PITCHED @ $9,800 — times you pitched this package
PITCHED @ $20,000 — times you pitched this package
Update Submitted Sep 1, 1:58 PM

The pre-filled day form. The bottom row is the part only you know.

- Follow-ups booked / shown — how many follow-up calls you scheduled today, and how many follow-ups actually showed today.
- Pitched @ $6,800 / $9,800 / $20,000 — how many times you pitched each package today.
- Leaving a box empty means "not reporting this" — we'll use what we measured. Typing a number means "this is the real figure," and it wins.
- Submitted the wrong thing? Open the day again any time — even weeks later — change it, and hit Update.

One habit that automates the follow-up counting:

When you book a follow-up call, put the words "follow up" in the calendar event title (e.g. "Follow up — Jordan and Ethan"). We read the titles and count your follow-ups automatically — one less thing to type at the end of the day.
